To all members of the Human Ergology Society and concerned

Release: Major update to Instructions to Contributors for Journal of Human Ergology

JOURNAL OF HUMAN ERGOLOGY (JHE) is an international medium for the presentation of scientific research on human behaviour in daily work and life. The journal publishes a wide variety of research. In conjunction with the publication of electronic journal from 2022, we would like to announce a major update to Instructions to Contributors for JHE, making the journal more attractive.

1. Starting date:

October 01, 2022 (Manuscripts submitted on or after this date must be prepared with updated 'Instructions to Contributors').

2. Main revised points:

- i. The journal welcomes four types of manuscripts, i.e., Original papers, Communications, Reviews and Practical case studies.
- ii. Ethics policies, such as COI and authorship, will be adopted.
- iii. Article Publications Fee (APC) will be collected.
- iv. English certificate will be required when your submission.
- v. Movies will be accepted in the manuscript.

3. Electronic journal location:

The Japan Science and Technology Information Aggregator, Electronic (J-STAGE).
J-STAGE is a platform for scholarly publications in Japan that is developed and managed by the Japan Science and Technology Agency (JST).
